About the trainer:

Diane Petropulos, M.A., is a principal in ADRinACTION, offering mediation, facilitation and training services in the areas of mediation and workplace conflict. She has developed and conducted workshops and trainings throughout Hawaii, and is a former lecturer at the Master's level in the Human Resource Management Program at UH Manoa.

Ms. Petropulos has mediated hundreds of Circuit, District and Small Claims Court cases for Maui Mediation Services, and currently serves on their Board of Directors. She is a former paralegal educator and a published author.

MMS is a community-based organization established in 1982 to help people find creative and appropriate ways of resolving disputes. We handle a wide variety of conflicts for families, neighborhoods, businesses and government agencies. In addition to mediation, MMS has a meeting facilitation program, an extensive training program and a program for teens.
